Part 1: Why Do This?

- So you are not uninformed as to the direction of our society, seeing past the hype, rumors, and the sensational.
- Connecting the dots to your own life experiences.
- To be warned: So we don't become gullible participants.
- To recognize when you're being preached to by the culture, seeing past the packaging to spot the worldview.
- Strengthened in your faith: charged with trusting Christ in the face of a culture hostile to the Biblical message. So we can be encouraged; yes, our Lord is coming back.
- So you can recognize opportunities to bring Biblical truths into situations, both within the body of believers and those outside the faith; to be a Truth Teller.

Three Primary Models of Outreach in the New Testament

truth telling

Model One: Appeal to Scriptural authority (exhorting/teaching).

Example: Jesus Christ to religious rulers, and to His disciples.

- “Have you not read...” (Matt. 12:3, 21:6, 22:31).

Model Two: Recognition of the personal (truth with grace).

Example: Jesus Christ to the sinner, the mistrusted, the shunned.

- Dining with tax collectors; the woman at the well, etc: “I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.” (Matthew 9:13b)

Model Three: Acknowledging God as Creator (an ambassador).

Example: Preaching to and within the pagan cultures of the region.

- Paul & Barnabas in Lystra: “to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things in them.” (Acts 14:15)

AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST

2 Corinthians 5:20-21

“Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ’s behalf, be reconciled to God. For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.”

Role & Duty of a Royal Ambassador

- The official and legal representative of your government – the King – to a foreign land.
- To know your King's power & position, and represent His interests, not your own.
- To understand the customs and culture of the foreign land; you are set apart from it, but cannot be uninformed as to its character or composition.
  1. To effectively communicate the King's message.
  2. To recognize challengers to the King's interest, and alert those in His service to areas of concern.

Why Do This?

- » To see the bigger picture.
- » To understand our transforming culture.
- » To grasp the challenges and opportunities.
- » To be better equipped as Ambassadors.

Part 2:

Setting the Stage - Two Worldviews

“If God and nature make up reality, than all is two, and everything is either Creator or creature. On the other hand, if the universe is all there is, then all is one.”

Genesis 3:4-5

Then the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die. For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like [as] God, knowing good and evil.

2 Thes. 2:3-4.

Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

Romans 1:18-25

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man – and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things.

Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

Genesis 11:1-8

- One original language.
- A city-tower complex is built.
- To reach into Heaven, make a name for ourselves in unity, "lest we be scattered."
- Man-made alternative to God's design.
- We define our own purpose, we create our own security, we build our own world order. In building upward, we bring our Heaven to Earth.
- Idolatry of Collective Humanity; that which is created sets its own course, determining its own reality.

“Spirit of Rio”

UN Secretary General Boutros Bouros-Ghali

Final address to the 1992 Rio Earth Summit:

“I should like to conclude by saying that the spirit of Rio must create a new form of good citizenship... we must now conclude an ethical and political contract with nature, with this Earth to which we owe our very existence...

To the ancients, the Nile was a god to be venerated, as was the Rhine, an infinite source of European myths, or the Amazonia forest, the mother of forests. Throughout the world, nature was the abode of the divinities that gave the forest, the desert or the mountains a personality which commanded worship and respect. The Earth had a soul. To find that soul again, to give it new life, that is the essence of Rio.”

School Ideas

- Start school-based interfaith groups & global citizenship clubs.
- Foster “Earth Pride,” form celebration around planetary identity.
- Zero world debt: Replace money with biometric cards & Earth-points.
- Instill global spiritual and ethical values through public education.

“Make it a virus, no inoculation, infect everyone.”

“The supreme motivating concept of the future is synergy: men and women of all nations coming together under leaders of great vision, who see that the pursuit of a common ideal, one world, one Earth, one people, is the reason for all existence.”

– Desmond E. Berghofer, The Visioneers: A Courage Story about Belief in the Future (Creating Learning International Press, 1992), p.289 .

“...humankind is seeking no less than its reunion with the 'divine,' its transcendence into ever higher forms of life. Hindus call our earth Brahma, or God, for they rightly see no difference between our earth and the divine. This ancient simple truth is slowly dawning upon humanity. Its full flowering will be the real, great new story of humanity, as we are about to enter our cosmic age and to become what we were always meant to be: the planet of God.”

- Robert Muller, New Genesis: Shaping a Global Spirituality (World Happiness and Cooperation, 1982/1989), p.49.

Creator, Other Than Nature

Distinct and Categorical Judge

Genesis 1

- Creates, yet remains separate from creation.

- Divides land/sea/heavens.
- Distinctions in species.
- Distinction in humanity from animal kingdom.
- Distinction in gender.

Isaiah 40:12-18

Utterly Unique

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, measured heaven with a span and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure? Weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?

Who has directed the Spirit of the Lord, or as His counselor has taught Him?

With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him in the path of justice? Who taught Him knowledge, and showed Him the way of understanding?

Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust on the scales; Look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing. And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering. All nations before Him are as nothing, and they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless.

To whom then will you liken God?

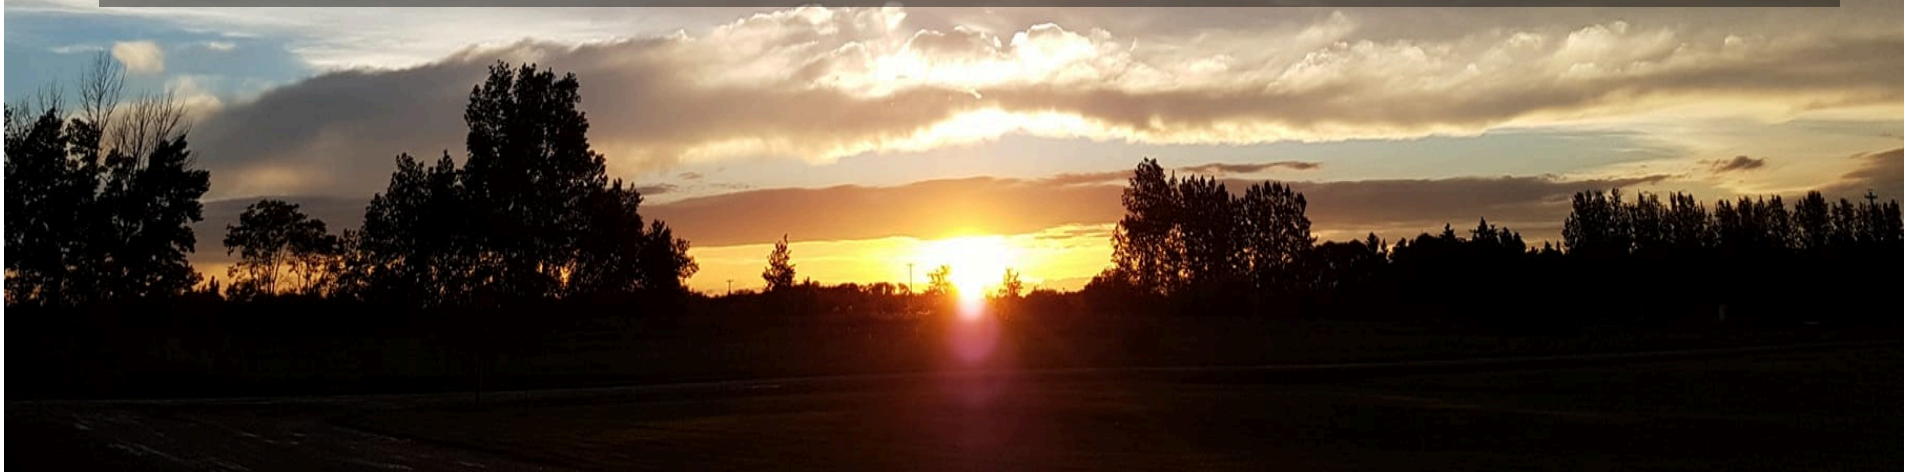

“Yours, O Lord, is the greatness, the power and the glory, the victory and the majesty; For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours; Yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and You are exalted as head over all. Both riches and honor come from You, and You reign over all. In Your hand is power and might; In Your hand it is to make great and to give strength to all. Now therefore, our God, We thank You and praise Your glorious name.”

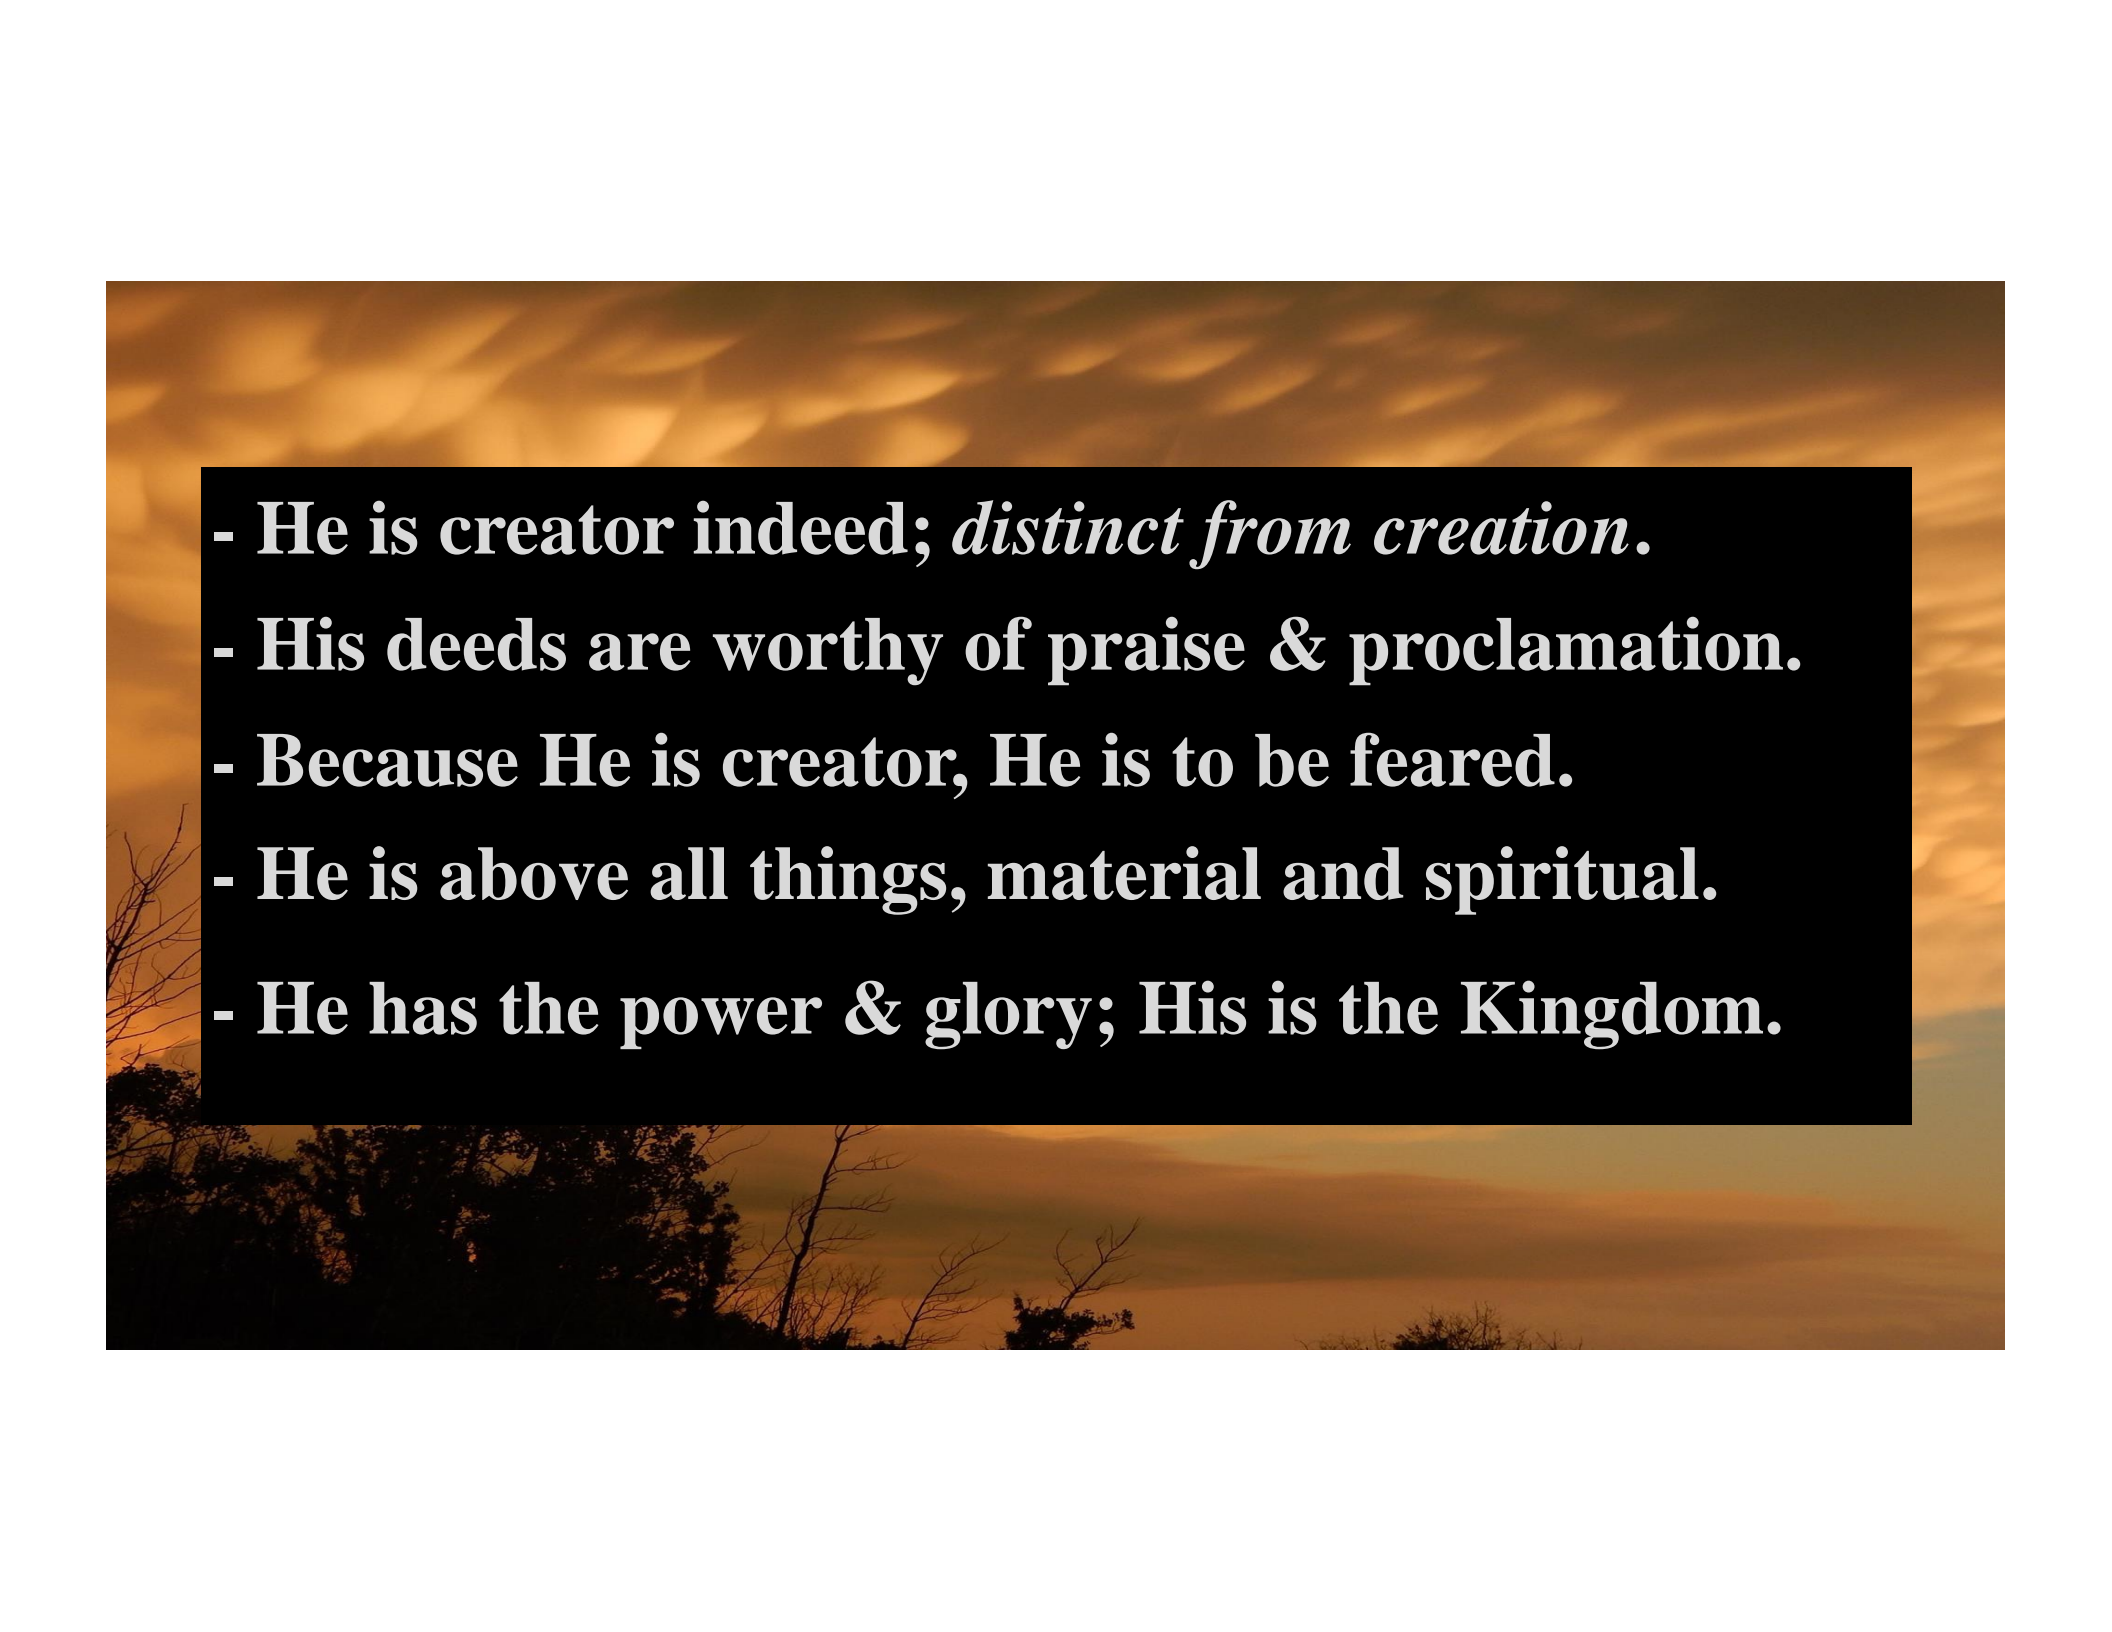

– 1 Chronicles 29:11-13.

“For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him. And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist. And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.”

– Colossians 1:16-18.

- He is creator indeed; distinct from creation.
  - His deeds are worthy of praise & proclamation.
  - Because He is creator, He is to be feared.
  - He is above all things, material and spiritual.
  - He has the power & glory; His is the Kingdom.

Global Crisis & World Order

“...the time will come when each nation will deposit in a world federation some portion of its sovereignty for the general good. — Nicholas Murray Butler, October 18, 1914

Samuel Zane Batten (1919): “If there is to be a new world it must come first of all through a new spirit in the nations. There must be created an international mind and conscience; men must learn to think of humanity as one family and to have a world patriotism... World patriotism must be a faith... International peace must become an aspiration, a religion, before it will become a reality.”

Northern Baptist Convention held a “World Order Crusade.”

1946 Southern Baptist Convention

Annual meeting, statement from the Special Committee on World Peace.

“We believe that the goal of peacemakers must be a world organized on the Christian principles of order and justice. We further believe that in the field of international relations, such a goal can be accomplished only by some type of world government. Accordingly, we recommend that Southern Baptists endorse the principle of world federation, and work toward amending and improving the United Nations organization to achieve that end.”

United Nations Millennium Forum
May 22-26, 2000

“As this new millennium begins, we are all increasingly coming to realize that, in our diversity, we are one human family. The only way we can survive the challenges ahead is to stand together. In this regard, we have no choice but to follow this path of global inclusion and to recognize and affirm our essential oneness.”

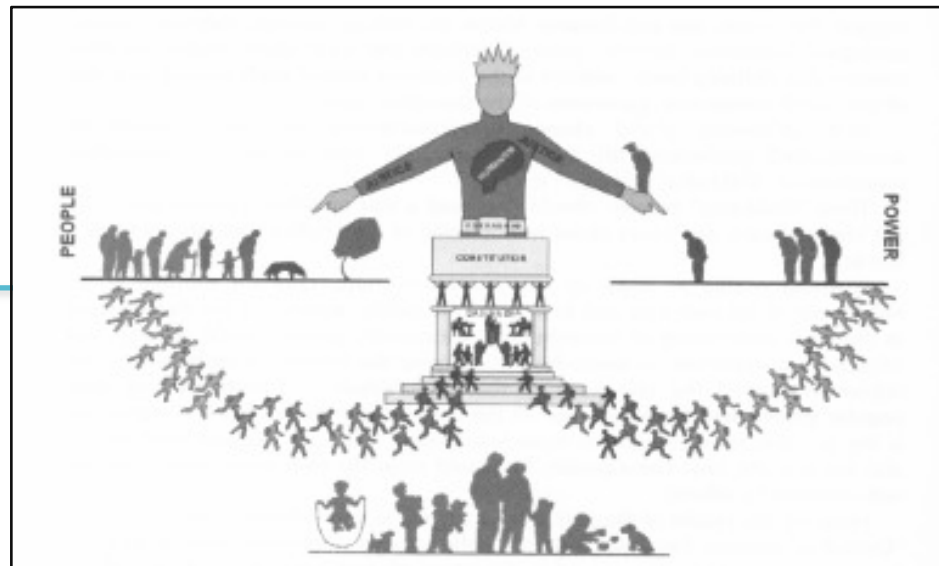

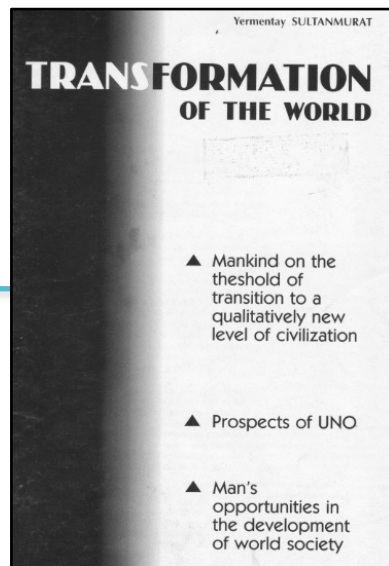

–Techeste Ahderom, Chair of the UNMF, opening speech.

Searching for a World King

“...the world does need a civilized coordinator in international relations and in settling global problems. More than that, this coordinator must be a stabilizing factor, actually, the last ditch authority on the Earth. He must win confidence of each man and each nation. People must be stark sure that this coordinator would solve any problem in a just and humane way. And one should be sure that in him we would find understanding and sympathy, that he would treat any nation as his own son... can the world community do without a coordinator? Definitely not.”

- Yermentay Sultanmurat, Transformation of the World (2000), p.25.

“The goal of the World Federalists is peace through unity of government. We must support their vision of oneness in diversity for it is the salvation of humanity.”

- Actress Jean Stapleton.

The Great Reset

January 25-29, 2021

The Great Reset

“There is only one Earth and one shared future for humanity. As we cope with the current crisis and endeavor to make a better day for everyone, we need to stand united and work together. We have been shown time and again that to beggar thy neighbor, to go it alone, and to slip into arrogant isolation will always fail. Let us all join hands and let multilateralism light our way toward a community with a shared future for mankind.”

“The planet is thus the center of the global economic system, and its health should be optimized in the decisions made by all other stakeholders. The same interconnectedness can be observed for the people who live on the planet... it is incumbent on all of us as global citizens to optimize the well-being of all.”

Reaching Evangelicals

Including Exclusivists

- Exclusivist: Someone whose faith teaches that only it offers satisfactory access to ultimate truth, salvation, or the Divine.
- In a North American context, most common E's are Protestant Evangelicals.
- Evangelicals, as exclusivists, are unlikely to participate in interfaith work.

Problem or Opportunity?

“Exclusivists are the interfaith movement’s most significant challenge...and also its greatest opportunity.”

- When making contact with an evangelical church, do not approach the lead pastor. Spend time building relationships with the associate pastor or youth leader.
- Frame the interfaith agenda within the acceptable language of community development and social justice.
- Leverage Bible verses in a way that appeals to a wider sense of love and acceptance.
- Have the younger/junior pastor meet his equivalent from one other faith only. Do not bring more religions into the mix until a bridge between the two faith leaders has been solidified. This is best accomplished by having them jointly participate in social justice projects.

- Interfaith agenda aligns with the transforming power of the UN.
- Humanity must be guided by international law: Global governance.
- We are global citizens, our loyalty and fidelity is to the Earth.
- The Parliament brings vision to the international community.
- The Parliament brings legitimacy to spiritual universalism.
- Connectedness & oneness must be embraced: Collective unity.
- We are engaged in a global revolution: We need to be subversive.

“Embrace oneness or we will be forced to do so.” - Payam Akhavan.

“One world with a common plan.” - Cardinal Blase Cupich.

“We, the people’s of the world, need to unite and demand a world government, and a world parliament, based on an Earth constitution.” - Swami Agnivesh.

SALVATION

Closing Statement,
November 7, 2018

“Thanks to all of those who are committed to the salvation of the Earth.”

- Larry Greenfield, Executive Director of the Parliament.

“Opening our Hearts to the World:
Compassion in Action”

Christians, Muslims, Buddhists, Hindus, Pagans, Judaism, Baha’i, Sikhs, and dozens of others... all saying the same thing.

- Equality of all spiritual paths. Exclusive truths claims are wrong & dangerous.
- Climate change; carbon taxes, pay our fair share, shifting values & behaviors.
- Covid demonstrated our interdependence; we must now see the world as one.
- Rebuild the world’s economy; replace capitalism with a new social order.
- Empower the UN to be the world’s moral voice; nationalism is over.
- Preaching Oneness: That God, Man, and Nature are essentially One.

One World

Synthesis of East and West

“A new consciousness is also emerging from a growing awareness in the West of the wisdom of the Eastern world-view. Buddhism, Hinduism, Taosim and Shinto ...Perhaps we can learn through them to see the world whole, as it really is, and together – West and East – begin to build the foundations of a new world order.

The most urgent item on the planetary agenda is to set the limits of freedom and order in supra-national, global affairs. A constitution for the world is needed which combines the achievements of both hemispheres: that is, constitutional limitations and a bill of rights from the West and a spacious world-view from the East.”

- Lucile W. Green, Journey to a Governed World: Thru 50 Years in the Peace Movement (The Uniquist Foundation, 1991/92), p.39.

So where is all of this going?

Conclusion

Psalm 2 puts all of this into perspective.

Why do the nations rage,
And the people plot a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together, Against the Lord and against His Anointed, saying, “Let us break Their bonds in pieces and cast away Their cords from us.”

He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; The Lord shall hold them in derision.
Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, and distress them in His deep displeasure: “Yet I have set My King On My holy hill of Zion.”

“I will declare the decree: The Lord has said to Me, ‘You are My Son, Today I have begotten You.

Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for Your possession. You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them to pieces like a potter’s vessel.’ ”

Now therefore, be wise, O kings; Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish in the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little.

Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

“Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel,
And his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: ‘I am the First and I am the Last; Besides
Me there is no God.

Is there a God besides Me?
Indeed there is no other Rock;
I know not one’.” - Isaiah 44:6,8b.
