Blessed Hope

Revd Dr Stephen Sizer

Pastor, author and photo journalist

If Easter was “VE” Day, when Satan was defeated, we look forward to “VJ” Day, when the Lord Jesus Christ will return in great power with his holy angels, destroy Satan, together with all who identify with him, and deliver his saints into eternal glory. This is what the Scriptures call our “blessed hope”. May it be yours also.

9-11/Israel did it

< 9-11

Evidence for the proposition that the Israeli state was the prime mover behind the events of 9-11

When an event occurs that fundamentally changes the dynamics of global geopolitics, there is one question above all others whose answer will most assuredly point to its perpetrators. That question is "Cui bono?" If those so indicted are in addition found to have had both motive and means then, as they say in the US, it's pretty much a "slam-dunk".

And so it is with the events of 9/11.

Discounting the Official Narrative as the absurdity it so clearly is, there are just two organisations on the entire planet with the expertise, assets, access and political protection necessary to have both executed 9/11 and effected its cover-up to date (ie the means). Both are Intelligence Agencies - the CIA and the Israeli Mossad whose motives were arguably the most compelling. Those motives dovetailed perfectly with the Neocon PNAC agenda, with it's explicitly stated need for "...a catastrophic and catalyzing event - like a new Pearl Harbor"^[1] in order to mobilise US public opinion for already planned wars, the effects of which would be to destroy Israel's enemies.

This article marshals evidence for the proposition that "Israel did it".

Subject: Christian Palestinianism

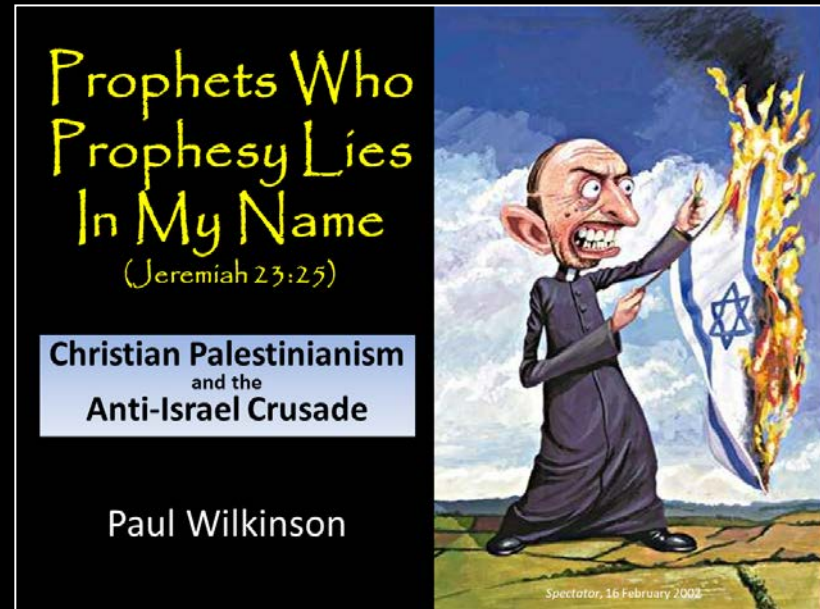

Dear Lord and Lady Carey,

In December 2010, I gave a Powerpoint presentation at a Christian conference in Dallas on the subject: Prophets Who Prophecy Lies In My Name: Christian Palestinianism and the anti-Israel Crusade.... Following my trip to Dallas, I was asked if I could put my presentation into written form, so that it could be made more widely available.... I hope that the attached document might be of some interest and service to you.

Yours sincerely in the Name of Christ Jesus our Lord,

Paul Wilkinson, Ph.D.

Dear Paul,

Thank you very much for sending me this powerpoint of your argument. I am very impressed and agree with you. Sizer was one of my students years ago at Trinity Bristol. I had no idea he would go in that direction. He is seriously wrong on so many issues and, as you say, the interpretation of the Palestinian Jesus is a distortion of biblical faith.

Warm regards

"Christian Zionism is officially on notice..."

Christianity Today

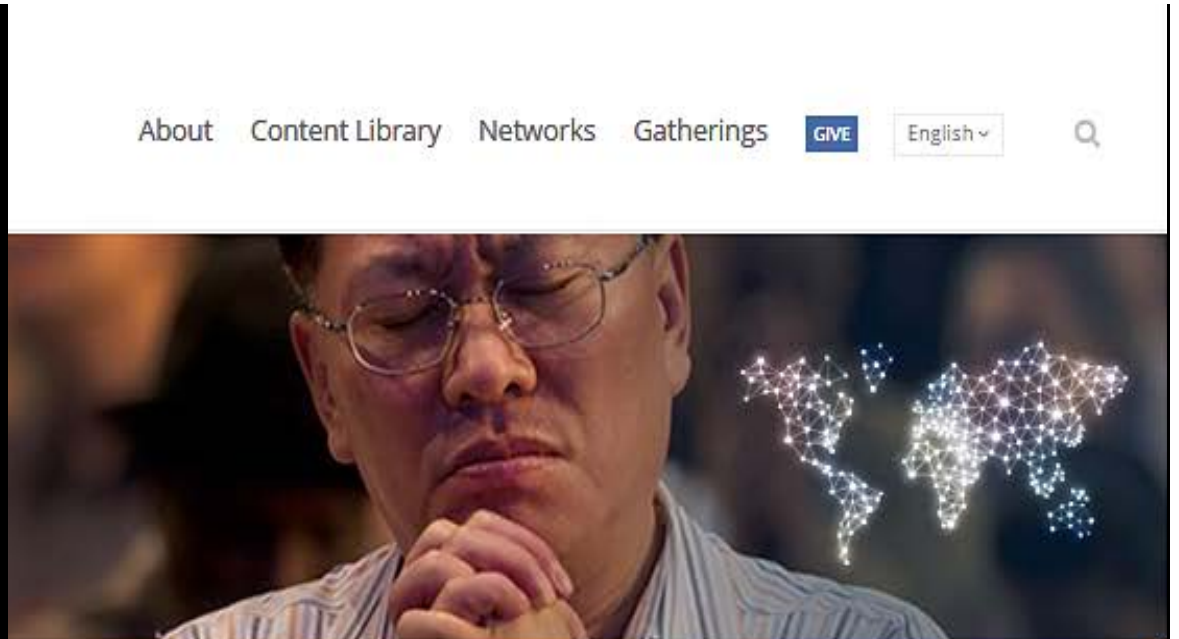

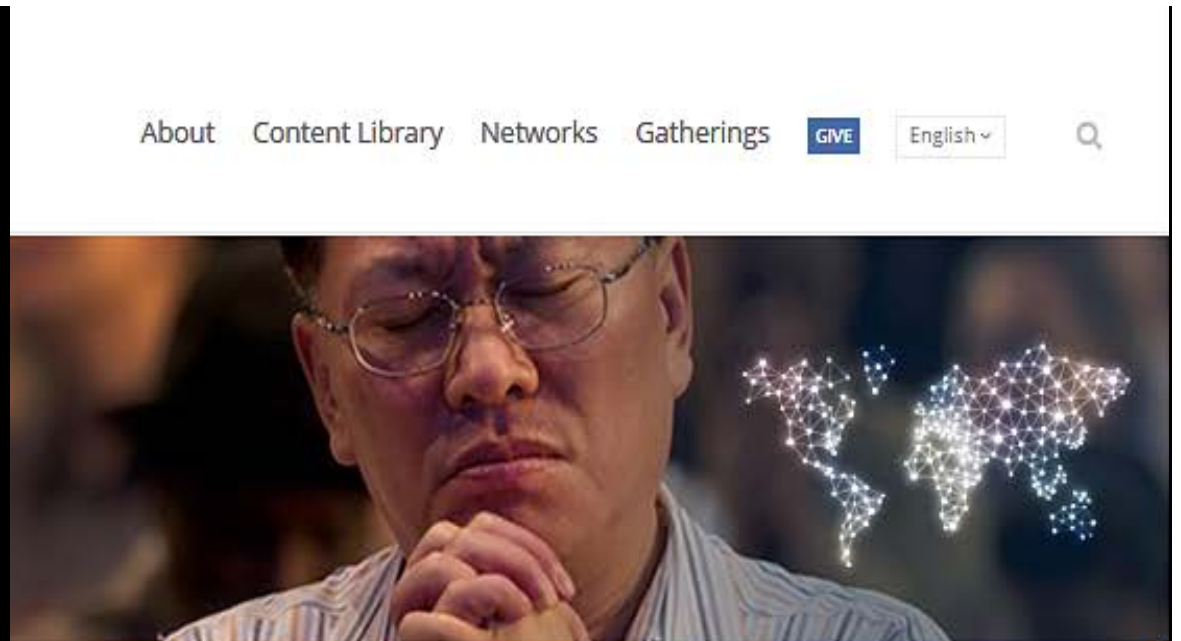

“He asked me, ‘Son of Man, can these bones live? Can the Palestinian people live?’”

Jack Sara, CATC II, March 2012

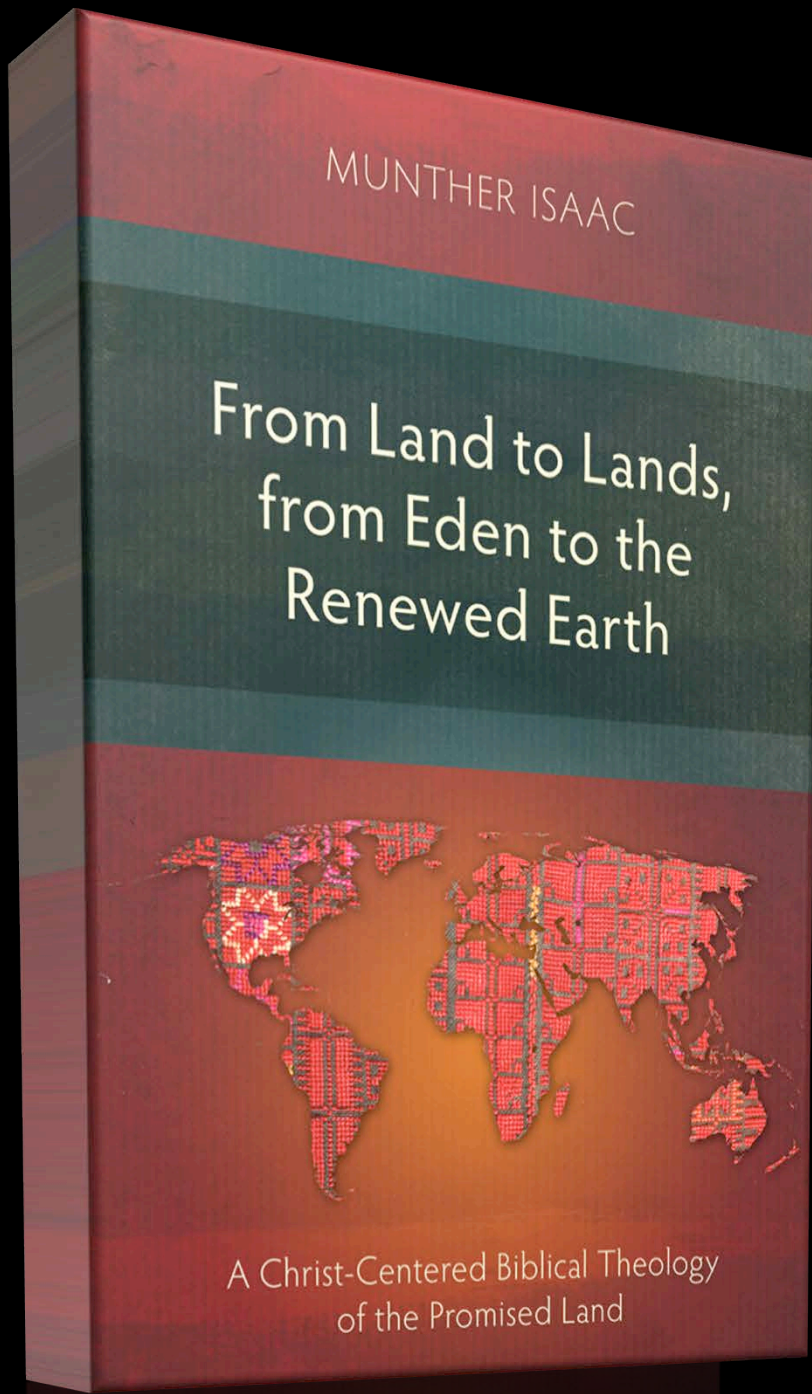

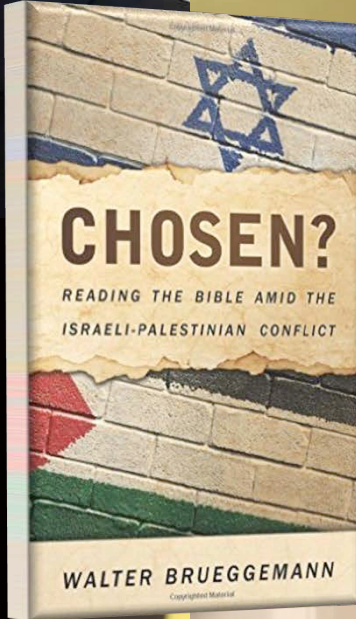

“...for over 60 years, many evangelicals have clung to a very narrow theological narrative that weds Christian theology with a political ideology known as Zionism.... This theological position has backed the largest and longest occupation of another people group in modern history, an oppressive Israeli legal system which [Desmond] Tutu and many other church leaders have called ‘apartheid on steroids’.”

“It was ill-conceived theology that launched the ships of the Spanish Inquisition and the legions of religious purifiers known as the Crusaders.... Even in the last century, amidst the horrors of apartheid in South Africa, many who voted to restrict the rights of the blacks were pillars in their church communities. These consequences happen when we are tied to a particular theology that supersedes our call to love.”

“The Jewish question touches the centre of the Christian message; neglect of the Church to raise its warning voice here and do all in its power to help would be disobeying its God.”

Visser 'T Hooft, Memorandum to the International Red Cross (October 29, 1941)

2nd WCC Assembly, Evanston, IL (August 15-31, 1954)

“Our concern in this issue is wholly biblical and is not to be confused with any political attitude towards the state of Israel... Our hope in Christ’s coming victory includes our hope for Israel in Christ, in his victory over the blindness of his own people.”

Statement on the Hope of Israel

“What had happened?”

“As the crucial vote was taken and I could clearly see from the platform what side the various national delegations were taking, I said to myself: the spectre of Hitler is present.... I saw that the churchmen from countries which had been... under the national socialist regime had practically all come to feel that Israel had not only a central place in the past history of salvation, but also in the future of salvation. As they had had to face the demonic hatred of the Jews, they had found deep meaning in St Pauls’ interpretation of the destiny of Israel in the ninth, tenth and eleventh chapters of the Epistle to the Romans.”

“Those who had not been so close to the terrible drama of the extermination of Jews in Europe could not see it this way. They felt that to single out the Jews, to give them a special place in history, was – in spite of all good intentions – a sort of discrimination... The minority had to admit that before the days of Hitler they had practically all, including Karl Barth himself, interpreted St Paul’s teaching... in a more or less allegorical rather than a historical way... [and were now]... motivated by shame that the churches had not understood in time the full spiritual dimension of the Jewish question.”

Visser 'T Hooft, Memoirs, 248.

3rd WCC Assembly, New Delhi (November 19 – December 5, 1961)

“...we had as yet no common mind about the theological questions of the destiny of the Jewish people or about the deeper significance of the creation of the state of Israel.”

Visser 'T Hooft, Memoirs, 313-314.

In August 1969, the Central Committee of the WCC meeting in Canterbury, England, issued a statement calling upon theologians “to avoid the misuse of the Bible in support of partisan political views”.

“For the first time in an official WCC policy statement, there was explicit recognition of Palestinian national identity.”

World Week for Peace in Palestine Israel

The Palestine Israel Ecumenical Forum (PIEF) of the World Council of Churches invites member churches, faith-based communities, and civil society organizations around the world to join together in 2015 for a week of advocacy and action in support of an end to the illegal occupation of Palestine and a just peace for all in Palestine and Israel. Congregations and individuals around the globe who share the hope of justice shall unite during the week to take peaceful actions, together, to create a common international public witness.

The theme of the week in 2015 is: "God has broken down the dividing walls"

The PIEF is an international, inter-church advocacy initiative for peace in Israel and Palestine

Why?

This annual observance of a week of prayer, education, and advocacy calls participants to work for an end to the illegal occupation of Palestine, so that Palestinians and Israelis can finally live in peace. It has been 66 years since the creation of the State of Israel. This has not led to the creation of an independent Palestinian state but has only deepened the tragedy of the Palestinian people. It is now 47 years since the occupation of East Jerusalem, the West Bank and Gaza overwhelmed the peaceful vision of one land, two peoples.

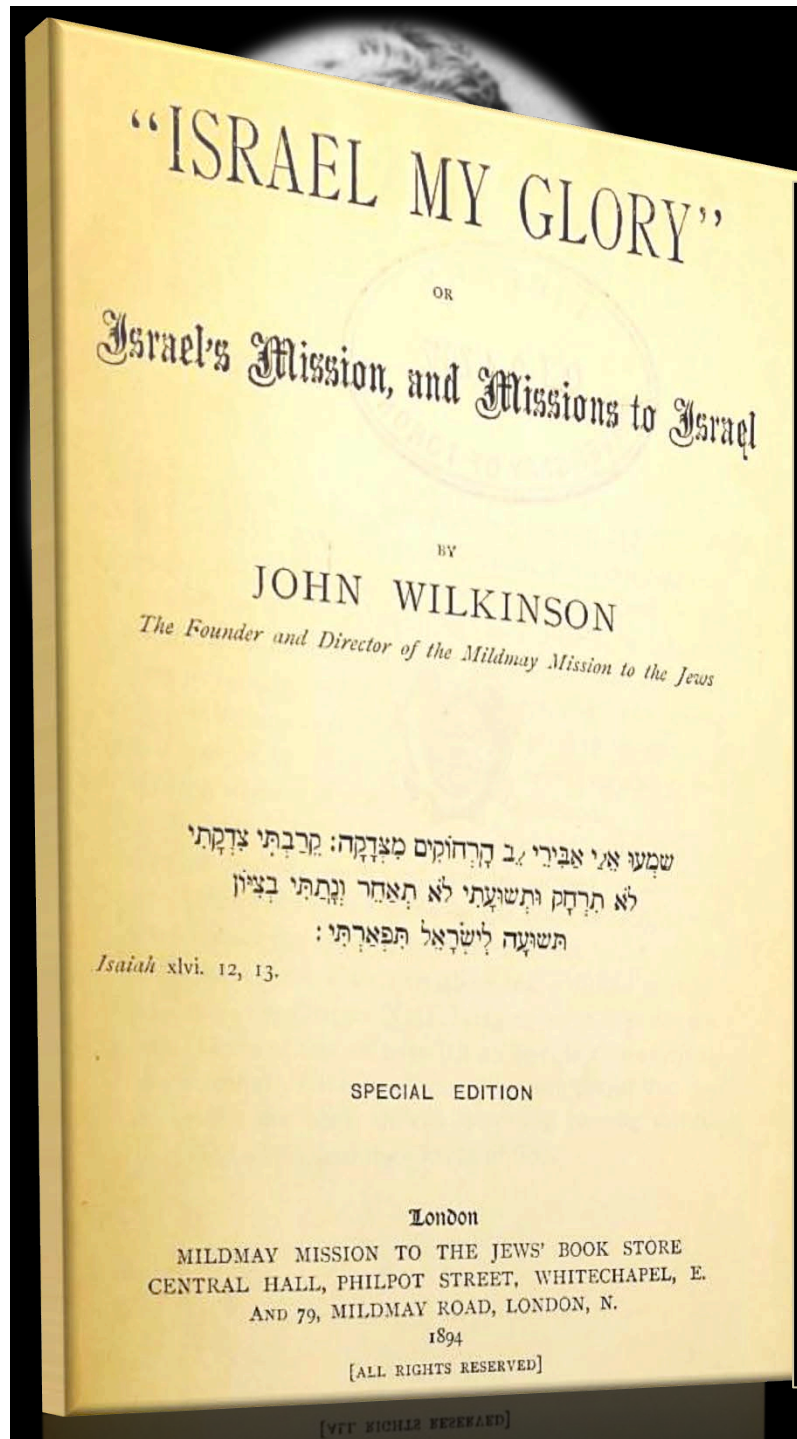

Events from previous years

“Now we must frankly admit that a literal interpretation of the Old Testament prophecies gives us just such a picture of an earthly reign of the Messiah as the premillennialist pictures.... At first sight, to one who accepts the Bible as the Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practise, the argument of the premillennialists seems unanswerable.”

Floyd E. Hamilton

The Basis of Millennial Faith (1942), 38-40

“‘Israel My glory’ is a remarkable expression [Isaiah 46:13]. Again and again we have the statement that God will be Israel’s glory.... Passages relating to the second Advent and reign of the Messiah I had been taught to spiritualise or allegorize.... I had much to unlearn....”

Niagara-on-the-Lake (August 12, 1885)

“It will give you pleasure to know that in America a deeper concern than formerly is felt for the children of Abraham according to the flesh. Of course, this is largely confined to those who are ‘looking for that blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ’; for as a rule only they have any clear view of the future dignity of Israel. But few, who have been taught by the Holy Spirit to wait for God’s Son from heaven, fail to find their hearts stirred to quickened delight in anticipation of the wondrous blessings in store for the ‘everlasting nation.’”
