A Christian Response to 'A Common Word Between Us and You'

In the name of the Infinitely Good God whom we should love with all our Being

Preamble

As members of the worldwide Christian community, we were deeply encouraged and challenged by the recent historic open letter signed by 138 leading Muslim scholars, clerics, and intellectuals from around the world. A Common Word Between Us and You identifies some core common ground between Christianity and Islam which lies at the heart of our respective faiths as well as at the heart of the most ancient Abrahamic faith, Judaism. Jesus Christ's call to love God and neighbor was rooted in the divine revelation to the people of Israel embodied in the Torah (Deuteronomy 6:5; Leviticus 19:18). We receive the open letter as a Muslim hand of conviviality and cooperation extended to Christians worldwide. In this response we extend our own Christian hand in return, so that together with all other human beings we may live in peace and justice as we seek to love God and our neighbors.

Religious leaders call on Congress to reevaluate military aid to Israel

October 9, 2012

(JTA) -- Fifteen leaders of U.S. churches and other faith-based organizations have asked Congress to reevaluate U.S. military aid to Israel.

The religious leaders sent a letter to Congress members on Monday, calling for an investigation into possible violations by Israel of the U.S. Foreign Assistance Act and the U.S. Arms Export Control Act, which would make Israel ineligible for U.S. military aid.

"As Christian leaders in the United States, it is our moral responsibility to question the continuation of unconditional U.S. financial assistance to the government of Israel. Realizing a just and lasting peace will require this accountability, as continued U.S. military assistance to Israel -- offered without conditions or accountability -- will only serve to sustain the status quo and Israel's military occupation of the Palestinian territories," the letter, signed by leaders of the Lutheran, Methodist, UCC churches, and the National Council of Churches, said.

Letter from Alice Walker to Publishers

This letter is published with author's permission.

June 9, 2012

Dear Publishers at Yediot Books,

Thank you so much for wishing to publish my novel this time for the following reason: As you may know, I have long been a vocal supporter of the BDS movement, and determined that Israel is guilty of apartheid, not only in the Occupied Territories. The resulting violence is devastating. I grew up under American apartheid, and attended, including Desmond Tutu, felt the Israeli apartheid under the white supremacist regimes that dominated

“It is my hope that the non-violent BDS (Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions) movement, of which I am part, will have enough of an impact on Israeli civilian society to change the situation”

Presbyterian Church Rejects Divestment; Passes Boycott Motion

Date: 6 July 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 6, 2012

Presbyterian General Assembly Passes Boycott Motion

Following last night's vote by the plenary of the 220th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA) on a motion to divest from three companies whose products are used in non-peaceful pursuits in the occupied Palestinian territories, the plenary has voted in favor of a separate resolution to boycott products made in Israeli settlements in the occupied territories, including Ahava Dead Sea beauty products and dates grown by Israeli cooperative Hadiklaim.

Although the plenary failed to pass the divestment motion, its approval of the boycott resolution sends a strong signal nonetheless that the Presbyterian Church (USA) supports those Palestinians who are using peaceful means to secure their freedom and human rights in the face of Israel's 45-year-old military occupation and colonization of their lands. The Israel/Palestine Mission Network of the Presbyterian Church (USA) believes this is a positive step and hopes the church will continue to support Palestinians who are struggling nonviolently to achieve freedom and self-determination.

Occupied Palestine, 3 May 2012 – The General Conference of the United Methodist Church decided yesterday to call for an explicit boycott of all Israeli companies "operating in the occupied Palestinian territories," knowing that this constitutes the absolute majority of Israeli corporations. This and the overwhelming support for the "Kairos Palestine" document and its call "for an end to military occupation and human rights violations through nonviolent actions," which include boycott, divestment and sanctions (BDS), will pave the way forward for further action by the Church to hold Israel accountable for its colonial and apartheid regime.

The United Church of Canada's Israel Boycott

At its general council meeting in Ottawa last Wednesday, the left-wing United Church of Canada demonstrated once again why predictions of its eventual disappearance are not to be dismissed. Instead of focusing on spiritual issues, as one would expect a church body to do, the council used its national assembly as a platform to engage in the decidedly less friendly religious activity of Israel hashing

Here Am I – Send Me

Here am I, send me!

I will journey over land and sea.

Here I stand, Hineini.

O Lord, send me;

O Lord, send me!

High and lifted up,

Behold His glory.

Robed in majesty;

We cry holy, holy!

Here am I, send me!

Give me words and I will speak for Thee.

Here I stand, Hineini.

O Lord, send me;

O Lord, send me!

Touch these lips, O Lord
With holy fire.

Fill my heart with love,
grace and power; power!

Here am I, send me!

I will journey over land and sea.
